TOM SCHANLEY TO JOIN JIMMY SMITS ON NBC'S "OUTLAW"

Actor guest stars in the episode "In RE: Curtis Farwell"

(October 4, 2010) Los Angeles - On Friday, October 8, 2010, noted actor Tom Schanley returns to television appearing as Carl Phillips on NBC's Outlaw, starring Jimmy Smits.

In the episode "In Re: Curtis Farwell," Carl Phillips, played by Schanley, is the surviving husband of a woman who is suspected of committing suicide after warning her employer, a car manufacturer, of unsafe conditions in the car. Turns out Carl may have played a role in her suicide as well.

Outlaw is a new courtroom drama starring Emmy winner Jimmy Smits as Supreme Court Justice Cyrus Garza, who abruptly quits the high-level position because he believes the system is flawed. He returns to his own law practice determined to represent the 'little guy' and use his inside knowledge of the justice system to take on high profile cases. Jesse Bradford ("The West Wing"), Carly Pope ("24"), Ellen Woglom ("Californication") and David Ramsey ("Dexter") also star.

Tune in this Friday, October 8, 2010 to catch the episode. The show airs Friday nights on NBC, at 10:00 p.m. / 9:00 p.m. Central time.
